About the program

The following application form is for entry into the University of New South Wales (UNSW) Indigenous Pre-Programs in the areas of Business, Education, Law and Social Work for Australian Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander People. These programs are held on the UNSW Kensington Campus in Sydney and coordinated by Nura Gili, the University’s Indigenous Programs Unit in conjunction with the Schools of Social Work and Education in the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, the Faculty of Law and the Australian School of Business at UNSW.

This program facilitates entry into Bachelor degree programs at UNSW in the areas of Business, Education, Law and Social Work. Entry is based on this completed application form, an application to the Universities Admissions Centre (UAC), successful completion of the four-week program and an interview held with Nura Gili and faculty staff.

Please note that an offer of a place in the Pre-Programs does not guarantee you a place at UNSW or at any university.

Costs

Accommodation and meals are provided by Nura Gili and the program is free of charge. Nura Gili will pay for all travel costs, and arrange all necessary travel schedules for those participants living outside of the perimeter of Wollongong, Katoomba and Newcastle. Students within these perimeters must make their own way to and from the Pre-Programs.

Dates and location

The Pre-Programs will be held in Sydney at UNSW from Tuesday 25th November to Thursday 18th December 2014. Your departure date may vary depending on your program. Please note that you will be required to stay on campus at UNSW for the duration of the program. If you are accepted into the Pre-Programs, you will be required to attend classes Mondays to Fridays for the duration of the program.
