

Nura Gili Indigenous Programs Unit

UNSW Indigenous Preparatory Programs Application 2017

About the program

The following application form is for entry into the University of New South Wales (UNSW) Indigenous Pre-Programs in the areas of Business, Education, Law and Social Work for Australian Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander People. These programs are held on the UNSW Kensington Campus in Sydney and coordinated by Nura Gili, the Indigenous Programs Unit at UNSW in conjunction with the affiliated UNSW faculties.

This program facilitates entry into selected Bachelor degree or Enabling programs at UNSW. Entry into your chosen degree is based on the completing the Pre-Program application form, an application to the Universities Admissions Centre (UAC), successful completing and passing all components of the three-week program and an interview held with Nura Gili and faculty staff.

Please note that an offer into the Pre-Programs does not guarantee an offer into an undergraduate degree at UNSW or at any other university.

Costs

The program is free of charge to all participants. Accommodation and meals are provided by Nura Gili. Nura Gili will pay for all travel costs and arrange all necessary travel for those participants living outside the perimeters of Wollongong, Katoomba and Newcastle. Students within these perimeters must make their own way to and from UNSW for the program.

Dates and location

The Pre-Programs will be held in Sydney at UNSW from Wednesday, 22 November to Thursday, 14 December 2017. Your departure date may vary depending on the study area selected. Please note that you will be required to attend classes Monday to Friday and you must reside on campus at UNSW for the duration of the program.
